“ I met Barry many years ago through line dancing as well as at the Long Branch. He was a very sweet man and I always enjoyed him. My deepest condolences to the family. He will be missed. May God grant each and everyone comfort and peace during this sad time. I will always remember Barry and the fun times we had dancing. May he rest in peace!

“ Remember Barry from his Sunday morning in keeping the audio/visual on track and quickly adapting to pastors changes. Barry always put others ahead of himself. Take comfort in knowing that if we share his faith we will see him again. Tom b.
