“ I will say, Bobby was an all around awesome guy, not shy at all about his passion for Jesus Christ. It's kinda like this, if u couldn't or can't get along with Bobby or Billy who can u get along with, words cant explain the kind hearts they both have. Bobby is finally living his passion, no doubt in my mind where he is now, bobby would not want anyone to be sad but to celebrate as he walks through those pearly gates of heaven, guarantee he makes an impact on heaven someway if not more than one, I really think he would say "don't be sad yall, carry on"... It was an absolute JOY knowing Bobby Davis, it's a Joy knowing Billy also, till now, I'll see u again another day my friend!!

“ Bobby was one of the nicest young men I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. He loved the Lord and did not mind telling anyone about him. He led my son to the Lord several years and never failed to ask about him when we would be talking. I am sorry to see you go so young but know you are happy and serving with our Savior. You will be one of the hardest workers up there. See you again.

Shirrel and Randy: We often say God needs nothing from us, He just wants us to be willing to give. In this case, I believe God had a special need for Bobby. He had done a lifetime of service in his short time here. I pray for your peace and rest... I love you so much.

Tiffany & Caden there are no words to say how very sorry we are that you are going through this at such a young age. Bobby may not have been blood kin, but he was our family too. You never saw Bobby that he didn't give you a "big ole hug" and ask how you were doing or that he loved you. He will be greatly missed by lots of people. We pray through this tragic accident that someone will come to know Jesus. We know he would have wanted that. Bobby was a true man of God, so we have no doubt that he is a Jesus feet or in that "Manison" he talked about. We are so thankful to say that he counseled & married our Son & Daughter-In-Law, Patrick & April Hester. We have so many good memories of Bobby. He will live in our Hearts forever. If you need anything please don't hesitate to call us. You know we love ya'll with all our hearts. God Bless Caden & you.
