“ Chief Parker “Buddy” you will be so missed! I still remember the day we met when I was a new airman at 7102 CPUSS. I had not been to my first assignment for a week when you came knocking on my dorm room door at the barracks to inform me my Oma was in the hospital terminally ill and helped me get to see her before she passed away. You and Ellen were so instrumental in a way you don’t even know. Prayers for you and your family. Never to be forgotten. Ellen, I am so sorry for the loss of Buddy, he was an amazing man and will be truley missed.

“ On the one hand I will carry a wounded and heavy heart for many days at the loss of my best friend in life. On the other hand, I will never be without the measureless joy, love, support and laughter that Buddy and Ellen (a saint in her own right) provided to me over the years. Buddy and I spent the best parts of our Air Force careers together, raised our families together, shared our love for sports together and, through it all, were bound together in a powerful expression of brotherly love. He rooted passionately for the Crimson Tide, me for the LSU Tigers, and we spent many a glorious Saturday (with grandson Allen in tow) in those noble shrines of SEC football. A man of honor, faith and service is gone from us. We will rarely see his likes again. Heartfelt condolences to Ellen and the Parker family. Rest in peace, my Brother. Bob Brown
