“ I miss you! I miss the way you turned everyday living into a joyful moment. I miss your smile and the sparkle in your eyes. I miss how you lit up the room. I miss the annoying way you reminded me of things over and over. I miss arguing with you about stupid little things that didn't even matter in the end. You are forever in my heart and forever my soul. My Eternal Love.

“ I can't imagine how my life will be impacted by not awakening to Clyde's daily observations and comments on America culture and life, political and social and no less sports LSU and the Saints. I'm feeling a profound emptiness, very profound. His wit, sarcasm and appreciation for the better gender will be greatly missed.
