“ All of the gang at Caffco Outlet LOVED Dee. She was sweet and so much fun. Dee enjoyed floral design and worked very hard to make beautiful floral arrangements. I was her supervisor and she sometimes joked with me and referred to herself as my 'problem child,' because she was often late to work or out sick due to illness, but Dee was a delightful individual and had a heart as big as the state of Texas. Although she retired several years ago when her health began to decline, we still have customers coming through the doors asking if she is back and then asking how she is doing. Like I stated earlier, Dee was very special and people loved her. She will live in our hearts forever. On behalf of the team at the Caffco Outlet, I would like to extend our deepest condolences to the friends and family of Deborah Absher.
