

Donald G. Parrish Jr.

May 14, 1957 - January 19, 2021

Donald “Donnie” Gene Parrish, Jr. (May 14, 1957 to January 19, 2021) was a caring husband, father, son, and brother.

Donnie was a proud Auburn graduate who retired after a long career at International Paper in Selma. An avid Tigers football fan, Donnie also enjoyed woodworking, trekking cross-country in his Airstream RV, and trying to keep up with his two rambunctious miniature schnauzers. He was always happy to help a neighbor, overengineer a school science project with his sons, and lift everyone’s spirits with his great sense of humor.

He leaves behind his loving wife of almost 40 years, Rachel, sons Trevor (Stephanie) and Austen, mother Joyce, sisters Vicki (Hunter) and Karen, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. He joins his father, Donald, Sr., as well as his grandparents and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, a private family service will be held with burial at Oakhill Cemetery in Prattville. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital.

“ The children of RC and Jerry Ellison are crushed to hear that Donnie is gone from his place beside Rachel, and from his life of service to others. Donnie and Rachel were exemplary neighbors, servants, and friends to RC and Jerry as they aged in their home next door, in Prattville. They continued to love and serve Jerry after RC passed away in 2006. No one could ask for better neighbors and friends. They became family, and we hurt with Rachel and the boys,
