“Dear Family, I am so very sorry about the loss of year dear loved one. May the thought at Job 33:25 give you comfort in knowing that Mrs. Kennington will return to the days of her youth and be able to enjoy life without the infirmities of old age. My sincere condolences to you.

“ My name is Ryan Stanford, I am Doris's grandson. I lived with her for 27 years, helped take care of her along with my mother, Cynthia Stanford. My grandma was my hero! My life has been blessed with every moment that I got to spend with her. One memory I will never forget, along with other memories, is that when I was a baby I would stay up to wait on Grandma to get home from work. When she entered that door, even as a new born infant I would try to pull my self up to her, and I wouldn't go to sleep until we spent time together. My grandma was my rock and I miss her dearly. I'm just thankful she is no longer in pain, and is walking beside our Lord and savior in Heaven. I love you Grandma. This isn't goodbye, this is see you later. RIP Grandma and fly high.

Ryan, both your mother and grandmother are truly great human beings. I trust you have some of their traits.
