“ I am so sorry to hear the news about Uncle Ernest. He was such a sweet person and always so kind to everyone. My prayers are with Annette and the family. I wanted to share this picture of when Ernest, Clarence, Mary, and David came to Ga to see my Dad. It was such a nice time and my Dad really enjoyed their visit. God Bless them all. Love, Cathy Goodson-Ortiz

“ We met Ernest in 1997 when he was showing a new home he had built in Silver Hills here in Prattville. He had a Bible on the mantle of the fireplace...he built a fine house and we live(d) in two of them. He was committed to living out the Christian life. Honest, straightforward,gentle, kind,with a backbone of steel.
