“ Ms Frances was a beautiful lady inside and out, she loved her family so much. I never seen here without a big smile that just made her face gloglow.She would bring chey and zayden to church in my class always speaking highly of her grandkids and great grandkids They were her pride and joy. Stephanie and chastity I am so sorry for your great loss. I will miss seeing her on sundays.love and praying for you all.

“ I have gotten to know Mrs. Frances better over the past several months along with her sweet great-grandchildren who some of my younger children love to play and hang out with. Mrs. Frances has been so kind and loving toward my children, even though one is a high-energy, special needs kid! It was such a shock to learn she had passed away and brought sadness to our family as well. We've been praying for you, her family, for God's comfort at this time.

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of Frances. She was a wonderful woman with a smile on her face all the time. It was an honor knowing such a great person. I am proud to have called her friend. She sleeps with angels now in the arms of the Lord. Our prayers go up for all of you. May you find comfort in the Lord in the days and weeks to come. I pray you also find comfort in knowing this is not the end and we will see Frances again in heaven. Thank you Lord for allowing us to share the love of Frances on this earth. She will be missed. Until we meet again, Godspeed

“Mama, I don't know how I will make it without you. You were the rock that held us all together. I know I can never do as you have, but you and daddy raised a strong women, so I am going to do my best. You will always be in my heart. I know you are in a much better place and I know daddy was so happy to see you, and you have always wanted to be by his side again. So, glad to know you both are with Jesus and happy. That is the only comfort I have right now. Love you forever and always. And I will see you both again.

“My Nona was the sweetest, kindest person ive ever known. She touched so many people with her love. I'm so grateful to God for allowing us to have her here as long as he did. We have so many precious memories with her. I love you so very much Nona and not a day will go by that I won't think of you. I promise to keep your memory alive the best I can. Thank you all for your thoughts, prayers, and kind words.
