“ Although I have only known George through the last 3 years of his life, I have been privileged to know the same man that so many of you, having known him for 20, 30, and 40+ years, have described. Working with him, laughing with him, and seeing his character and spirit through a very difficult and debilitating illness has left an indelible impression upon me. One of the greatest gifts he possesses is making an individual (any individual) feel as if they are the most important person in the world when he sees them. I would walk in and say, "Hi, George" and his face would light up, making me feel like I was a cherished friend every single time. I am so blessed because God allowed me to be a part of his life, and even though it was for a relatively short time, I know there is an eternity we will have to resume our friendship and he will finally be able to teach me about soccer!

My prayers are with you, Dottie, and with the rest of the family, too. Thank you for allowing me to be involved in your lives; it is truly an honor. I love you.

“ George was like a second father to me. In 1984, I was eighteen years old - even though I had no skills or experience to offer, he gave me a job doing whatever "needed" to be done at his law firm. He saw in me what I didn't see in myself and created an opportunity for us to see what might happen. Over the next 12 years he shepherded me as I finished college, inspired me to attend law school and mentored me through my first 5 years of practice. I have now been practicing law for 24 years and there is never a day that goes by that I do not use the legal and/or people skills he so selflessly taught me. I would not be the man or lawyer I am today without the influence of George Howell, one of the finest men I have ever known.

“ George was my first boss. He hired me when I was a senior in high school. I was terrified going to work for a Lt Col, a Colonel and George. George took an insecure kid in and taught me responsibility and gave me confidence to move forward. I worked in the legal field for the next 24 years. I have always felt so thankful for the opportunities that George gave me. I am now an employer and it amazes me how many times after I have hired new employees, that I've sat them down and said "let me tell you about my first job." George has touched a lot of lives. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Dottie and family,

Although we have moved to Pennsylvania we have never forgot the kindness of George. He taught both of our children in Sunday School--he planted "the seed." We want you all to know that we are rejoicing that some sweet day we will be able to see George in all his glory--what a day that will be. We are interceding for you all and asking God for his rich blessings upon you at this time.
