“ i served with Harry in Marine Corps Air Squadron VMF 115 in Goleta, CA (near Santa Barbara) and tented with him on the island of Emireau, then in the Philippines. He was my best friend while in the Corps.

He was a good friend of good character and a good Marine. I cherish his friendship and the memories of the time we served together.

“ The Rawlinson family is my family too. I love everyone , such an array of great personality, wit, people / people, love and compassion. Harry was the ultimate kind and gracious Southern Gentleman. He and my George were the same age , both born 1924.

“ Papa Harry was one of the best men I have ever known. He was kind, witty, and had a fantastic sense of humor. He wasn't afraid to push boundaries or ask questions. We engaged in many debates and even annoyed our family with our banter and unwillingness to let the subject subside. But even with our ideological differences, our discussions were filled with love, jest, and always emphasized our deep connection. He was truly a vessel for God's love, and I am so thankful that God brought him into our family. All of those who have been touched by Harry's wonderful soul will be in my prayers. I will miss him greatly, but I am so happy that he has now found peace and comfort in God.

Harry Rawlinson was a good man. He was my boss when I started at the Alabama Department of Revenue in 1972. He had many friends in Revenue and in other state offices.

We drank coffee together every workday morning in the Grill in the Folsom Administrative Building. Harry could be lured into an argument by his friend Mike McElvy. One classic discussion concerned the speed of light, where Mike said it was not a constant thing, just to see what Harry would say. Harry said a lot.

Harry was a good boss. I'm glad he retired when he could. Margaret was a good lady. Sabrina was a good daughter.

I'm sorry Harry is gone. I won't get to hear him play the harmonica again.
