“ With Jo Ann’s passing, I’ve lost a Great aunt, friend, and mentor. She was always there for me when I needed advice. She was always there for her family and little Abby was her delight! I feel fortunate that she still made time for me, and that we both shared the same beliefs and drive to make a difference. Her example is one reason I am who I am today -not afraid to speak out no matter what and to stand for your convictions. To make your priorities GOD, family, and friends in that order. She always reminded me of the founding principles of our nation- everything that made this country good. Aunt Jo Ann, I will continue to fight and do what’s right. I will miss our conversations dearly-I love you and know you are looking down smiling on top of the highest mountain now in Heaven.
Love, Matthew
