“ Dear Haynes Family, Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It seems no greater sadness if felt than when someone so near to us is loss. May you find comfort in your memories and draw strength from a promise God has given which provides the hope that someday you will be reunited with Kennie (John 5:28,29). This promised future is one that will be filled with great joy because it includes perfect health and everlasting life on a paradise earth where "the former things have passed away" (Rev. 21:4, Psalms 37:29). So may you find some comfort during this most difficult time knowing that God does care and He does hear our cries. Please accept my most sincere condolences.

“ Alvarene, it was so sad to learn of Kennie's passing. Unfortunately I didn't learn of it til several days after the funeral. As a classmate, and a member of the BRHS band, I thought I knew Kennie fairly well. He was a quiet, unassuming man. Few outside our generation probably didn't know Kennie was a very accomplished trumpeteer, as good as any I've ever seen or heard. I still recall him playing Flight of the Bumblebee at a concert. Outstanding! Cherish his memories and your travels with him. If Linda or I can be of any comfort or help to you in any way, please do not hesitate to call.
Love, Frank Clayton

“ I have learned of Kennie's death. I have many very fond memories of our times together. Both my mother and father would have expressed the same feelings.

The story that still makes me smile happened at band camp at the University of Alabama when some of our bunk mates lifted his cot, took it outside and left it by the road. He never woke up until morning when the cars started passing.
