“ I can't say enough about Marie loved her so very much, and each time we could visit I so enjoyed being around her. Will never forget the first time she put me in my place it was at her Sister Shirley's house at the Granthams reunion I kept calling her Mary and she was washing dishes and she turned around and said if you would call me by my right name I might answer you. Boy was I embarrassed, as I was new to the family and was hard for me to remember everyone's name there was so many of them So over the next several years we both had a lot of laughs over that. She was so special to me and her brother Junior. Rest in peace my dear friend I know your happier now. Always Pat and Jr.

“ I met Marie when I was only 15 years old and I had found the love of my life in her son Zack! She took me right in and we immediately became family. We laughed a lot and we loved to play canasta every chance we got. She was so sweet and loving I have not seen her in years but we got back in touch a few years ago thru facebook and it was amazing thinking back to all of those years before. I love you Marie and I look forward to seeing you again one day when we meet in heaven!!!!
