“ Never could I have imagined that I would be telling you goodnight forever. Saturday mornings with you blasting Sade, the race car roaring, and that darn woodpecker, laughing on the poarch of the many Sussex memories, callingbyou a dildo whilw battling at spades, coming home to pick J up and you having an "I want some hotdog" episode, watching you get lit talking about "elevators up," wrestling defending the belt as Mancho Man vs Hulk Hogan, Camaro slamming down Sussex to get to work, famous oatmeal and peanut butter cookies, the fight on the grass, snowball battles, J making you his patient, you will never be forgotten...love always

“ We are forever saddened by the passing of Michael. He was like a second son to us. Not only loyal to his paper route, he spent quality time at our house just hanging out. The family is forever in our hearts and prayers, we feel your loss. 🙏💔 May God continue to watch over you and bless you. Eddie & Anita Craig

No farewell words were spoken, No time to say goodbye, you were gone before we knew it and only God knows why.*
