“ Though I did not personally know Mr. Hunter, I want to express my deepest sympathy to your family. No doubt the loss of such a dear loved one will be felt by many. Long ago the faithful man job asked if an able-bodied man died could he live again. The comforting answer is yes. Our God the Creator yearns to bring back to life those who have died. (Job 14:13-15) May this and other promises recorded in God's Word the Bible continue to comfort your family in this critical time.

“ Keith was a very engaging man..Only need meet him once to call him friend. His dry sense of humor and laughter was infectious to all who were near. I will miss him...

“ No matter how long you'd known someone or in what context, those that met you knew that you were something very special... your smile, wit, uniqueness and humor will truly be missed in this world. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Life without Keith, its going to be tough. Enjoyed all the nights we hung out and laughed and joked on each other. Definitely one of a kind. You will be missed dearly. So thankful I do have memoriesmay you rest in peace my dear friend.

“ Didn't know you that long, but appreciated your sarcastic wit and twisted humor. You were an optimistic pessimist in a leaky glass world.... I hope where ever you are, you have a decent beer and rich meal in front of you, and a sleek, fast riding European sports car waiting for you in the parking lot. Rest well Keith. Paul O'Brien.

“ Keith, my circle is very small and I am honored that you was a special member of it. I'll always remember our back porch chats and victories shared with other friends. We can never fill your spot, my friend. You will always be a part of the team. Rest in peace. JM Cox
