“ I had the pleasure of working with Bob for about 4 years. He would often refer to me as the honey badger. Bob liked that nick name so much he even bought me a t-shirt with the honey badger printed on the front. He loved messing with me and I with him. What a great guy! I will remember and miss him! My prayers go out to his family and I hope God gives you the strength, courage and peace that you will need in the coming days.

He was a amazing grandfather I always called him Pappy. I have a few memories of him. I know he always threw me up in the air when he was watching tv in my Gaga's (Grandmother) living room and we would watch Godzilla a lot! He also bought me a Barbie doll house for my 4th Christmas! I'll never forget my pappy. He was a indeed amazing f man.

“ Dear Family, My thoughts and prayers go out to you during this very difficult time. Soon, Christ Jesus will take away our last enemy, which is death, and we will be able to welcome our loved ones back from death by means of a resurrection to everlasting life here on a paradise earth. May you draw comfort from the God of all comfort, Jehovah, as your loved one is resting, awaiting a resurrection. Psalms 37:29 says "the righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it."

“ It is hard to say the name of Bob Gilbert without including Rennie - they were truly partners in life. Bob and Rennie were such good friends to my late husband and I and to our children. After the death of my first husband, Bob took the time to show me how to shoot a rifle and even provided the rifle. He even forgave me when I messed up the new prop on his fishing boat during a camping trip. And Bob gave his sons his time and attention and set the example of what a good husband and dad should be. What a loss for this world but what a gain for heaven.
