“ My sincere condolences to the Williams family. Wouldn't it be great if death stopped claiming the lives of our dear loved ones? In his word, the Bible, God promises to do just that. This promise is found at Revelation 21:4, where God says "death will be no more". What a grand prospect we have to look forward to! May this, along with the support of family and friends, bring you comfort during this difficult period of time.

I ran a cross this and I was trying to see if this is Steve Williams who attended Faulkner University several years back? I'm trying to see if this is the same Steve who I knew in college.

Words cannot express how highly we thought of Steve. He was the absolute best neighbor we could have ever asked for. He was always there to help us out when: the dog needed to be fed and we were out of town, or the car needed fixing, or I couldn't find my keys and he'd take Annaka to school, or when I'd have computer problems (for which we still owe him a steak dinner). We'll miss seeing him out with a smile on his face waving and saying "Hey". He was like part of our family and will be dearly missed.

“ To the Williams family, I know it is hard to understand why people are taken from us, but I hope you can find comfort in knowing that you were a special part in a well-lived life. “ From the Mulligan Family, we are so sorry for your family's loss. I have watched Steve grow from a boy into a very fine man, thanks to his family and others. I will miss the talks we had out on the street and when I would see him around Prattville. I will never forget his smile and his kindness and how great he was doing in life. The good lord broke the mode when he made Steve and I know he has got to be One of Gods Right Hand Angles and We All Will See Him Again One Day.
