“ Tony was one of the best bosses I ever had. He was the first person to give me an opportunity as a woman in the diesel industry, and for that, I will always be grateful. He believed in me, challenged me to grow, and became an incredible mentor along the way. His knowledge, guidance, and support helped shape my career more than he'll ever know.

Tony was more than a boss—he was a leader who invested in people and made a lasting impact on everyone fortunate enough to work with him. He will be deeply missed, but his influence and the lessons he shared will never be forgotten.

Fly high, Bossman. Thank you for everything. ❤️ Ally (Blas) Grablin
